

North Carolina National Guard M-day Retirement Benefits

There are many benefits for Retirees of the North Carolina National Guard. However, the benefits you are eligible for depends on your status. One retirement status is gray area, gray area retirees are Soldiers who have 20 years of service but are not yet eligible for retired pay. The second status is Soldiers who are eligible to draw retired pay (usually age 60).

Benefits for Retired Reserve/ Standby Reserve Retirees

- ID Cards
- Use of Military Installations
- Space A travel for service member only
- Lodging/AFRC
- Carlson Wagonlit Travel
- Legal Assistance
- Survivor Assistance
- Casualty Assistance
- Family Service
- VA for Veterans
- VGLI if eligible and requested

Benefits at age 60

- North Carolina State Pension
- Military Medical Facilities
- Tricare until age 65
- Tricare for life with Medicare plan B
- Space A travel for service member and spouse (OCONUS)
- VA Services
- VGLI if Eligible

For More Information visit:

<http://www.nc.ngb.army.mil/Services/Pages/Retirees.aspx>

Or call:

(919)664-7565